

The Light of the Rocket Is the Eye

On the Quantum Field, the Single Eye, and the Body Filled with Light

If it is true that we exist in a quantum field & reality then what would this mean for you? We are used to the Newtonian physics idea that $A \Rightarrow B$, $B \Rightarrow C$... the law of cause and effect, also sometimes called Karma. This leaves little room for the unknown. But is this really how reality works? If we consider how complex ordinary experience is, we come to find that underneath the surface level of thinking is a silent, intelligent realm we can call the Unmanifested. It is from here that every thing arises.

How Do We Touch the Quantum Realm?

Psalm 102:7 — "I watch, and am as a sparrow alone on the house top"

John 14:20 — "At that day you shall know that I am in my father, and you in me, and I in you"

What Happens During Meditation?

- The body & mind fuse & healing begins. Hormones such as melatonin & DHEA are released — both of which have been shown to inhibit the onset & growth of cancer.
- The body enters a state of "hypometabolic wakefulness": oxygen consumption decreases, while awareness increases. Entirely different from sleep, dreaming, wakefulness, meditation induces an entirely different state of consciousness: one of pure infinity (from Quantum Healing, page 216–217).

LAUNCHPAD TIP

It's important to remember we cannot think intellectually our way to a higher or lower state of consciousness. We must continuously accept our current state, allow it's energy to unfold, and surrender. If we force it, we only perpetuate the state we are in. All that is required is unconditional loving observation!

Returning to the Quantum You

By returning to the silent all-pervasive witness we return to the quantum unknown, where all possibilities exist, & where every thing comes into existence. Because the 5 senses (seeing, smelling, hearing, tasting & touching), nonstop thinking, daydreaming, distraction, & informational bombardment & overload fill up nearly every second of our days, it may seem obscure or out of reach to return to the quantum unknown; yet this is the source of which we all came from. With practice, consistency, diligence, & continuous surrendering, you may know the quantum you. (Matthew 13:11 Unto YOU it is given to know the kingdom of heaven.) It is always available, always present. Returning to it breaks your programming & conditioning entirely, transcending all the programming, all the chaos that's been fed to you all your life, giving you the opportunity to create a life entirely new. If we keep thinking the same thoughts, feeling the same emotions, we only reenforce our conditioning received from the past, and leave no room for expansion & possibility here & now. As it says in Mark 13:37 — And what I say unto you I say unto all, WATCH. Once again, all that is required is unconditional loving observation!

God, Light, Photon

If we know from 1 John 1:5 that "God/Source is light", & Matthew 6:22 "if thine eye be single thy whole body shall fill with light (God!)", we can conclude that God is also photons, since photons are the smallest units of light. In fact, in Numbers 2:9 those numbered in the tribe of Judah (the children of light, the point of the rising Sun in the east) were 186,400 — which is, if you round, the speed of light in miles/second! How did they know?

Photons do not comply with traditional physics. Their behavior is dependent entirely upon whether an observer is present; & that observer is you.

When a photon is observed, it collapses into a particle, but when it is unobserved, it exists as a wave, and can be anywhere, at any time! It exists in its unmanifested form, while upon observation, it becomes manifest as a particle. In other words, the behavior of photon is entirely dependent upon observation.

The Single Eye

If you concentrate upon the light receptor in your brain, the pineal gland, the single eye, the “third” eye, at the center of your forehead in meditation, you collapse the light waves into particles, & your body fills with God, with Light.

So what must we do to fill the body with the light, which is God/Source, & also, us? Once again, Matthew 6:22 “The light of the body is the eye: if thine eye be single; thy whole body shall fill with light”

The Bhagavad Gita (“The Song of God”), the ancient Hindu text, tells us, too, in chapter 5:28 & chapter 6:14:

Shutting out all external sense objects, keeping the eyes and vision concentrated between the two eyebrows, suspending the inward and outward breaths within the nostrils, and thus controlling the mind, senses and intelligence, the transcendentalist aiming at liberation becomes free from desire, fear and anger. One who is always in this state is certainly liberated.

Holding the body, head and neck still, looking at the tip of the nose & also not looking, keeping the eyes half-open, half-closed, while holding an unagitated mind devoid of fear & lust, concentrating the mind & completely subduing it, the actual yogi should shall concentrate upon Me (Krsna/God/Light/The Pineal Gland) as the ultimate goal.

The Body's Electromagnetic Field

Science now knows that humans emit an electro-magnetic field (EMF), due to our iron core (hemoglobin) circulated by electric energy. This could be where people have seen “auras” — also known as phosphorescence. Nonetheless, the fact is known that circulating ALL bodies (including all animals) is an electromagnetic field, one that we have the ability to both restore balance to it & disrupt it.

Restoring Balance Through Meditation

While there are many ways in which one can restore their electromagnetic fields, including consuming electrolytes, staying hydrated, and deep breathing, perhaps the most essential is meditation: where our electrical waves shift from Beta waves (fast, chaotic, irregular) to Alpha & Theta waves (slow, organized, regular). The heart, too, has a network of neurons, connected to the brain, and meditation syncs the two together — known as Heart Coherence. By now, I hope you are beginning to see how meditation — focusing, concentrating on the point between the two eyebrows, suspending the breath equally between inhale & exhale, shutting out all distraction of the senses, & WATCHING (Luke 21:26, Ezekiel 3:17) — how essential it is to your well-being. It's the only way you can heal & connect to that higher power which you are!

Radiation & Resonance

Radiation is the powerful electromagnetic force that is sent by great balls of energy such as the sun.

Resonance is the absorption of that radiation, & subsequent glow & emission as a result. In other words, we are the absorber, & God (which is light)/Universe/Spirit is the emitter.

When light (the emitter) strikes the earth at an angle (or an “angel”), it changes the electrical energy of all beings, the absorbers. If we are open to receiving the message of light, finding the space between thought & rising above it upon the mountaintop, we receive new energy, new thought, new ideas, & new DNA. We begin to restore our flow with nature, with Elohim, with our Great Mother & the Universe. We can flow with it or resist it, but it has never ceased to flow, nor will it ever cease. It is available to you, here & now!

THE KINGDOM WITHIN

Unto YOU it is given to know the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 13:11)

Seek first the kingdom of God (Matthew 6:33)

The kingdom of God is within you (Luke 17:21)
